

GIMLAS Integrated Services Limited is committed to:

- a. Provision of environmental consultancy, analytical laboratories, energy and waste management services to oil and gas companies, government, and other industrial sectors.
- b. Compliance with all relevant interested parties' requirements (such as customers, regulatory/statutory, external providers among others); including satisfaction of our customers through timely delivery of high-quality services that meet or exceed the requirements and expectations of our clients in every project.
- c. Effective implementation of our organizational requirements i.e. its Management Systems & related processes and procedures.
- d. Continual improvement of all its business processes in line with requirements of ISO 9001:2015 to achieve its strategic direction and overall organizational performance.
- e. Establishment and implementation of measurable quality objectives at relevant levels and functions to achieve its intended results of its QMS.

Responsibility for Implementation & Maintenance:

The Managing Director ensures that this Quality Policy statement is communicated to relevant interested parties including all employees in a manner that ensures suitable application to assigned tasks and continually reviewed for suitability, effectiveness and continual improvement during management review meetings.

MANAGING DIRECTOR